TO RELIEVE DISTRESS.

The Central Mission Giving the Poor a Reason for Thanksgiving.

The Central Union Mission room this morning presented the appearance of a warehouse in which was stored large quantities of meat, vegetables, flour, meal, confections, clothing, etc., donated for the poor. A member of the Mission said that the contributions had been liberal this year if not more so than last year. Three hundred dollars in meat, beside provisions and clothing, had already been received with more to come.

The Mission will take a different plan this year in relieving the wants of the poor, and will not give a dinner, as was the case last year, over the Centre Market, when able-bodied men, who were not really in distress, crowded the room, and who had been provided with tickets from a source unknown to the officers of the Mission. Near the center have been drawn a canvas of the poor in their respective parishes. In these poor people recommended by them will be visited at their homes and relieved by a special committee from the Central Union Mission.

anniversary celebration of the organization. Toasts were drunk in water, the first one, "The Right Worthy Grand Lodge," being responded to by Dr.
Dionysius, The Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia. The Grand Chief Templar, W. G. Perry; "Minnecha, the Mother Lodge of the District," by Past Grand Vice Templar Mrs. E. A. Chambers; "The Press," by

in South Washington, and the groom is a well-known business man of this city.

Sounding Line 24!

Every day results the volume of news that, as a rule, for all Boston discusses such topics as the Boston and New England Military Remains, this is an old and established name with a record. It has been weighed in the balance and found filling every claim. It has been tested in the market and found to be sound.
For those who like to have a good book, it is a good one.

John Calahan is Alive.

John Calahan, the ex-mayor in the War Department and saloon-keeper of this city, who was supposed and written from the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, Ohio, has been received from

Special Thanksgiving Feasts.

In all the Catholic Churches to morrow the special prayer for the welfare of the nation will be recited. This prayer was composed by Bishop Carroll, the last pontiff elevated to the Episcopacy in this country, there is nothing like it.
It is in Latin, and the words are well known to all.

FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

The Football Game Between Georgetown and Columbia Elephants.

The football champion ship will be decided at Capitol Park to-morrow.
The contest will be between the Columbian and the Georgians, and as each have claimed the championship an interesting game may be looked for. The two elevens have met but once this year, on the grounds of the college team, and the Georgians won. The game between the two is the refusal of Columbia to concede, although the score was in its favor. This has led to considerable talk of bad blood existing between the two teams, and the impression seems to have gone out that the game to-morrow will be the "slugging" order.

The managers of both teams and all the players preface such talk. So far as they are concerned the game will be played strictly on its merits, and the men will remain quiet until the time of the game. Any talk of the Georgians being in a rage will not be allowed by Judge Miller.

Slaughter was as deaf as an adder, and Dick Anderson tried his sonorous and thundering voice to no avail, but he could get no response to his Honor's questions.

Slaughter said he wanted Thornton to keep out of the alley, and had told him so before.

"You don't own the alley," remarked the Judge, "and you can furnish a bond of $200 to keep the fence."

The men of both elevens have been in active training for tomorrow's game, and it will undoubtedly be the event of the day. The Georgians having had won the game last year from the Duponts on Thanksgiving Day, have been considered the champions of the District, and they will strive hard to maintain the title, while the Columbians will do their utmost to obtain it.

The team work of the Georgians has never been so effective as this season, and they look to that factor to win the game. The Georgians will have the best and most durable stockings.
They are warmer and better in many ways.

cotton, silk, thread and French cotton. The silk and silk tights are
